

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1897. ONE CENT.

SWORN CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!
The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Artistic Footwear!

If you will take a peep into our shoe window you will see that we made our promise good when we said our shoes will be as good as our clothing. We are now prepared to show you

The Best Line of MEN'S SHOES In the State!

Every pair we sell you WE WARRANT to wear well. If they don't we give you another pair.
Next week the Maysville Fair, under its new management, will be in order. We will try to make it as pleasant for visitors as we know how. We always had a weakness for treating Fair visitors fair.
Come and see us; we will take care of your parcels, packages, etc.

Incidental.

If you so desire we will show you the prettiest line of Clothing, Shirts, Hats, Shoes

In the country. Our prices—well, see the goods. The prices are all right.

The gentlemen that had the contract for the extension of the Hill City Turnpike have given up the job, and Mr. John E. Wells, Secretary of the Turnpike Commissioners, advertises for more bids.
Manager William H. Fremont's elegant Company will open next week at the Opera-house in the Comedy-drama "The Old Soldier." Popular prices will prevail the entire week—10, 20 and 30 cents.
Under the supervision of Mr. J. D. Dye, one of the Board of Managers of the Washington Opera-house, that establishment has been thoroughly renovated. The auditorium has been scrubbed out, the ceilings repainted, the lobby frescoed and the dressing rooms and stage have been put in the best possible condition. Altogether, the house is in better shape than it has been since it was built.

The Mt. Olivet Fair begins tomorrow.

All popular brands of Flour for sale by M. C. Russell & Son.

The L. and N. Depot and the grocery store of H. M. Warder of Helens were robbed one night last week.

The program for the coming Campfire of Joseph Heiser Post, G. A. R., appears in another place. Preparations have been made for an enjoyable time, and a number of distinguished speakers have been invited and are expected to be present.

Hon. Lucas Moore, State Commissioner of Agriculture, is preparing to send out seed wheat to the farmers of Kentucky. The wheat furnished by the Commissioner for this purpose was furnished by a Michigan farmer, and is a very fine species of European wheat.

On Thursday, September 16th, the C. and O. will run a grand excursion to Oligonunk at a rate of 75 cents for the round trip. This will be a grand opportunity to visit these noted caverns and to take a delightful trip over one of the grandest railroads in the country.

The meeting at Electric Park last night was well attended, as it should have been, and the services will be held to-night as usual. Remember the Young People's Meeting Friday night, which will close the services at the Park, as Rev. Reed has been called to another field. Plenty of seats for everybody, and you will be made welcome. Rev. N. G. Grizzle will preach tonight, and Rev. Marshal Howard of the Christian Conference will preach the closing sermon tomorrow night.

The active pallbearers from Mason Lodge No. 342, F. and A. M. for the funeral of Mr. H. H. Collins this afternoon are Messrs. John W. Alexander, R. L. Browning, Thomas A. Davis, E. A. Robinson, William H. Cox and L. Hill. The honorary pallbearers from the Board of Education are Messrs. George T. Hunter, A. M. J. Cochran, John C. Adanson, Thomas Y. Nesbitt, W. C. Sadler and George Schwartz.

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same, simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The Shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juices. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1 per bottle.

J. D. Bramel and family of Mt. Gilead will move to Gibson City, Ill., this fall.

The freshest and purest Spices of all kinds found at Ray's Postoffice Drugstore.

Mr. Charles G. Lee and Miss Lena Mae Gaither marry today at the home of the bride at Lewisburg.

Owing to pressing official duties Governor Bradley will be unable to attend the Campfire of Joseph Heiser Post, to be given next week at Electric Park.

In another place is the announcement of Mr. Godfrey Hunsicker as a candidate for Council from the Fifth Ward. Mr. Hunsicker is an industrious young man and would faithfully look after the city's interests if elected.

Workmen are now engaged remodeling the interior of the store adjoining J. T. Kackley & Co.'s Bookstore. It will be occupied the last of this week by Mrs. L. V. Davis with the handsomest line of Millinery ever seen in Maysville.

A very interesting matrimonial career is that of Deputy Sheriff James Merily, aged 34, of Knox county. He has just married his ninth wife, having lived only a few months with each of her predecessors. After getting a divorce from his first wife, he again married her, and later was again divorced. He has married seven others since then, two of whom died, and from four he was divorced. His last wife is a widow with whom he is still living.

HOW TO CURE TOBACCO.

Department Issues a Bulletin Containing Advice to Growers.

The Department of Agriculture at Washington has issued a bulletin on the subject of "curing tobacco," in which the following advice as to marketing is tendered:

"For the production of a saleable article much depends upon the character of the soil, and a great deal depends upon the skill in curing. Fully as much, however, depends upon the proper grading and sorting of the tobacco and the style of packing in which it is sent to the manufacturer. Too much cannot be said about the necessity for very careful attention to these apparently small details. It is very important, moreover, that the planters should study the markets, the demands from foreign countries, the requirements of our manufacturers, and aim to produce exactly what they want and to get it to them in the way in which they can best use it rather than to study the matter of economy.

"A great deal can be accomplished by improving the seed, by importing new seed and by improving the methods of cultivation, but more can be accomplished by a steady and persistent effort to produce thorough methods of cultivation and fermentation, sorting, grading, etc., the closest possible resemblance to the type which is desired by the manufacturer and the consumer. This is the business side of the transaction. A careful study and compliance with the requirements of the market will undoubtedly increase the price of tobacco equally as much as any difference in the smoking and chewing qualities has improved much more than the practice of grading and sorting in compliance with the market demands. There is plenty of room yet for improvement in the quality of tobacco, but still more can be done just at present by additional attention to these commercial details."

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros' Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

FRIDAY'S CASH SALE.

Huck Towels.

Twelve miles from Belfast is the castle of the late Marquis of Downshire Hill, which gives the town the name of Hillsborough. The town is a live of thrift, its linen industry turning largely to Towels. The Hillsborough Company is famous for its Huckaback and Twilled Linen Towels. They are the same kind of intrinsic good values one gets under the "Old Bleach" label, that factory a dozen miles from Belfast in another direction. The Hillsborough Company's goods are grass bleached; no chemical rot has ever tainted their product. We made a cash deal on 200 Hillsborough Huck Towels, and the shipment will make Friday's Towel show and give Maysville the greatest Towel value we have offered in years. The Towels are all hemmed and some neat red borders. They are thirsty water soakers, 40 inches long, 21 inches wide. Careful housewives and hotel men who use liberal size Towels will make the most of this occasion. Price 19c.

Women's Hosiery

LOT No. 1—Loely Gauge Black Hose, improved toe, Heun-hoff dye. The colors hold till the stocking wears out. Price regularly 35c.; price Friday 25c. Want to introduce them to the trade.
